Her "Attraction Waterlily" is on view in the online American Artists Professional League's Spring 2023 Members Show. Online catalog: <https://aaplinc.org/spring-2023>

Diana's sixth picture book, entitled What Do You See? will be out by mid-June (Cover pictured on page one).

"This is the first in a series of six picture books which endeavors to show children in a non-preachy way that we, all humans, animal and plant life, are connected, with the underlying message that if we are connected, we should care for each other."
